

CERTIFICATION AGREEMENT
FACT SHEET - HAR

Ref.: 11

Edition: Dec.2002

Subst. Ed.: 01/1999

Page: 1 (1)

---

Agreement	HAR	Agreement on the Use of Commonly Agreed Marking to Cables and Cords Complying with Harmonized Specifications. Associated to EEPCA (European Electrical Product Certification Association).  Operating since: 1974                      Statistics: Abt. 1100 licences with 200 manufacturers  Secretariat: Mr. Nils Kleinjan, c/o EEPCA, Paris, France Management: HAR Signatory group, meeting at least once a year, combined with CIG (Common Interest Group). Chaired by: Mr. V. Baggio, c/o IMQ, Italy Advisory body: HAR AC (HAR Advisory Committee) representing cable manufacturers and certification bodies Technical support: Operational Staff Meetings, OSM/INST
Area	Market: Intended for European market, but also recognized outside Signatories: Presently 19 European member bodies, of which all are also CCA members, except BASEC, UK Laboratories: Signatory laboratories only
Product categories	Cables and cords
Openness	For European manufacturers and production only *)
Standards	CENELEC HDs, (European harmonisation documents for cables and cords)
Fees and Surcharge	Certification/licence fee(s) determined by each signatory. No surcharge is applicable.
Certification mark	< NEMKO > < HAR >                      Common mark, indicating the licensing signatory and the adherence to the HAR agreement respectively
Secondary application	Not applicable since representing a common certification for all Europe.
Secondary test sample	Not applicable
Production surveillance	Samples selected in the factory for follow-up testing 4 times per year, (or on call, in cases of batch production)
Remark	*)                      The present rules imply that the manufacturer uses the national certification body.
For more info.	www.har-cert.com and www.eepca.org/EEPCA-MRAs.htm#HAR

---